The Columbus Advertiser is the name of the new weekly soon to make its appearance at Columbus, to be published by the Keith Printing Company and edited by our old friend Thos. Keith. Mr. Keith while yet a young man is old at the game and we bespeak for him success in this new venture.

The Meridian Star reports that the Board of Supervisors at its recent meeting reduced the realty assessment of Lauderdale county by 20 per cent with the avowed purpose of reducing the amount of tax money to be paid to the State some $12,000. It is not even claimed that their lands were assessed at more than their worth or at a higher proportionate rate than were other lands of the State. It is simply an evasion of just taxation, as we take it from the Star's report.

This is not the first county in Mississippi that has taken similar action and it is just such measures as this that emphasizes the fact that our State needs some systematic method of equalizing taxation. How would it do to try the New Zealand plan?

The Jackson Highway Commission will meet in Nashville Sept. 23-24, and will adopt a route for the road which will connect Chicago and other Northern cities with New Orleans. Our people should get busy and see that the road is planned through this section as nearly as possible along the route taken by Jackson in his march to the defense of the Crescent City.

It is now proposed to build the road down through Alabama, touching both Birmingham and Mobile. It is a well known fact that Jackson's army was never near either of these cities, but that he followed very nearly the divide between the rivers making up the Alabama system and those of the Mississippi and the Pearl. Surely if the road is to bear the name of Jackson it should be somewhere near the route followed by him, especially when that can be done along a route now nearing completion for more than 150 miles, and too when fewer hills and streams will be encountered.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Some Politics

With the political sea still strewn with the wreckage of the battle of this year, there appears on the horizon the craft of other fighters ready for the war of 1916. Already two boats have come well within view, cleared for action, and the first round has been fired. Admiral Sisson fired a salute from the clear deck of his cruiser and was answered by a broadside from Capt. Ward's successful battleship. This battle promises to be long and hotly contested. Both commanders are flushed with easy victory; they hail from the same post, Winona; and many of their gunners and seamen were formerly allies; educated in the same school and followers of the same flag.

But then there are others. Three more flags are partly within view, but the nature of these craft can not yet be determined. Capt. LaGrone's boat is out from West Point on a reconnoitering expedition; Capt. Creekmore's flag is seen coming out from towards Water Valley, but his intentions are not yet well understood; another vessel of some description is seen coming from the direction of Holly Springs and appears to be doing scout duty. Its flag is somewhat obscured by the haze, but by the aid of glasses one would be led to believe that Capt. Knox was in a foreign post when the first gun was fired and that he made haste to set sail for the battle ground.

Capt. Knox commands a swift battle cruiser, carrying guns of large caliber. This, together with his skill would make him a factor to be reckoned with in the final conflict.

Miss Margaret Smith and her house guests were honored by the young men of the city on Monday evening, August 30th, with a ball at the opera house. The Cosmopolitan Band, who knows so well how to put the characteristic swing into dance music, furnished music for the occasion, much to the delight of all present.

Several visitors from Tupelo, Shannon, Egypt and Aberdeen were present to enjoy this rare treat.

Everyone declared the ball a great success and Okolona's young men ideal hosts.
